RESPONSIBILITIES

The following are the principal recurring responsibilities of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee may perform such other functions as are consistent with its purpose and applicable law, rules and regulations or as the Board may request.

1. Set Compensation for Directors, Executive Officers and Other Company Personnel in the Compensation Committee's Discretion. The Compensation Committee shall:
 - Review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to Director compensation. A proposal for the compensation of a Director is prepared in accordance with the Company's remuneration policy and will in any event cover (a) the objectives of the strategy for the implementation of sustainable long-term value creation, (b) the scenario analyses carried out in advance, (c) the pay ratios within the Company and the business, (d) the development of the market price of the shares, (e) an appropriate ratio between the variable and fixed remuneration components, (f) if shares are being awarded, the terms and conditions governing this and (g) if equity-based or equity-linked awards are being awarded, the terms and conditions governing this (including with respect to exercise provisions, if applicable). When preparing their recommendation, the Compensation Committee shall take note of the individual Director's views with regard to the amount and structure of their own compensation. Following such recommendation by the Compensation Committee the compensation of the individual Directors shall be determined by the Board, provided that the Executive Directors may not take part in the deliberations and decision-making concerning the compensation of the Executive Directors.

- Review and approve annually the corporate goals and objectives applicable to the compensation of the Executive Directors, evaluate at least annually the Executive Directors' performance in light thereof, and consider factors related to the performance of the Company in approving the compensation level of the Executive Directors. The Executive Directors may not be present during deliberations or voting on such matters.
- Review at least annually and, either as a committee or together with the Non-Executive Directors (as directed by the Board) make recommendations to the Board regarding the Executive Directors' (a) base salary, (b) incentive bonus, including the specific goals and amount, (c) equity compensation, (d) any severance arrangement or change of control protections and (e) any other benefits, compensation or similar arrangements (including, without limitation, perquisites and any other form of compensation such as a signing bonus or payment of relocation costs). In recommending the long-term incentive component of Executive Director compensation, the Compensation Committee may consider, among other things, the Company's performance and relative shareholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to the Executive Directors at comparable companies and in comparable roles and the awards given to the Executive Directors in past years. Following such recommendation by the Compensation Committee, the compensation of the individual Directors (including that of the Executive Directors) is determined by the Board, provided that the Executive Directors may not take part in the deliberations and decision-making concerning the compensation of the Executive Directors.
- Review and approve the compensation, including equity compensation, change-in-control benefits and severance arrangements, of the individuals who are deemed to be "officers" of the Company under Rule 16a-1(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act, not including the Executive Directors (the "Executive Officers"), and oversee their performance.
- Review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to executive compensation policies and plans.
- In consultation with the Chief Executive Officer, review annually and approve the (a) base salary, (b) incentive bonus, including the specific goals and amount, (c) equity compensation, (d) any severance arrangement or change of control protections and (e) any other benefits, compensation or similar arrangements (including, without limitation, perquisites and any other form of compensation such as a signing bonus or payment of relocation costs) for (i) the Executive Officers and (ii) other Company personnel in the Compensation Committee's discretion.

- Review and approve any compensatory contracts or similar transactions or arrangements with current or former Executive Officers and other Company personnel in the Compensation Committee's discretion, including consulting arrangements, employment contracts, severance or termination arrangements, which review and approval shall include any benefits to be provided in connection with a change of control. In this regard, the Compensation Committee shall have the power and authority to adopt, amend and terminate such contracts, transactions or arrangements.

2. Oversee Compensation Plans and Programs. The Compensation Committee shall:

- Review, approve, implement and administer annual and long-term incentive compensation plans for Directors and service providers of the Company, including Executive Officers and other Company personnel in the Compensation Committee's discretion, including:
 - establishing performance objectives and certifying performance achievement;
 - determining the number of shares underlying, and the terms of, equity-based or equity-linked awards and options to be granted; and
 - reviewing and approving all equity incentive plans and grants of equity-based or equity-linked awards pursuant to such plans.

The Compensation Committee shall also have the authority to adopt, amend and terminate such plans.

- Administer the Company's equity incentive and other equity compensation plans. In its administration of the equity incentive plans, the Compensation Committee may (i) grant share options, restricted share units, share purchase rights or other equity-based or equity-linked awards to individuals eligible for such grants (including grants to individuals subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act in compliance with Rule 16b-3 promulgated thereunder) and in accordance with procedures and guidelines as may be established by the Board and (ii) amend such share options, restricted share units, share purchase rights or other equity-based or equity-linked awards. The Compensation Committee may also adopt, amend and terminate the equity incentive and other equity compensation plans, including approving changes in the number of shares reserved for issuance thereunder, subject to obtaining any required shareholder approval.

- establish and periodically review policies for the administration of executive compensation programs.
- Periodically review executive compensation programs and total compensation levels, including the impact of tax and accounting rules changes.
- If applicable, review and recommend to the Board for approval the frequency with which the Company will conduct “a Say on Pay Vote”, taking into account the results of the most recent shareholder advisory vote on frequency of Say on Pay Votes required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act, and review and approve the proposals regarding the Say on Pay Vote and the frequency of the Say on Pay Vote to be included in the Company’s proxy statement. The Compensation Committee shall review the results of Say on Pay Votes and consider any implications in connection with the Compensation Committee’s ongoing determinations and recommendations regarding the Company’s executive compensation policies and practice.
- Review and discuss annually with management the risks arising from the Company’s compensation philosophy and practices applicable to all employees to determine whether they encourage excessive risk-taking and to evaluate compensation policies and practices that could mitigate such risks.
- If the Board adopts share ownership guidelines applicable to Directors and/or Executive Officers, periodically review such guidelines and recommend any proposed changes to the Board; and
- Adopt, amend and/or terminate, or recommend to the Board for approval, amendment or termination, and oversee clawback policies and/or practices if and as the Compensation Committee determines to be necessary or appropriate, as required by law, or as required to comply with New York Stock Exchange listing standards mandating the recoupment from specified Executive Officers of erroneously-awarded incentive-based compensation.

3. Compliance and Governance. The Compensation Committee shall:

- Review and discuss with management the Company’s Compensation Discussion and Analysis (“CD&A”) and related disclosures required by the rules and regulations of the SEC. The Compensation Committee will also review and recommend the final CD&A to the Board for inclusion in the Company’s annual report on Form 10-K or proxy statement.
- Review and discuss with management the executive pay-versus-performance tabular and narrative disclosures required by the rules and regulations of the SEC to be included in the Company’s annual proxy statement, including the identification and presentation of the most important financial performance measures used to link Company performance to the compensation actually paid to the Company’s named Executive Officers.

 - how scenario analyses have been taken into consideration;
 - the pay ratios within the Company and the business and, if applicable, any changes in these ratios;
 - in the event that a Director receives variable remuneration, how this remuneration contributes to sustainable long-term value creation, the measurable performance criteria determined in advance and on which the variable remuneration depends, and the relationship between the remuneration and performance; and
 - in the event that a current or former Director receives a severance payment, the reason for this payment.
 - Publish the main elements of the agreement with an Executive Director on the Company's website in a transparent overview after the agreement has been concluded, and in any event no later than the date of the notice calling the Company's general meeting of shareholders where the appointment of the Executive Director will be proposed.
 - Oversee the Company's compliance with SEC rules and regulations regarding submissions to shareholders on executive compensation matters, including Say on Pay Votes and the frequency of such votes, incentive and other executive compensation plans, and amendments to such plans (to the extent required under the listing standards of the securities exchange on which the Company's securities are listed) and, in conjunction with the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (or its designees), engagement with proxy advisory firms and other shareholder groups on executive compensation matters.

The Compensation Committee shall have direct responsibility for and shall set the compensation and oversee the work of any compensation consultants, outside legal counsel and such other advisors retained by the Compensation Committee. The Company will provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Compensation Committee, to pay any such compensation consultant, outside legal counsel or any other outside advisors hired by the Compensation Committee and any administrative expenses of the Compensation Committee that the Compensation Committee determines are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its activities.
- Prior to selecting and receiving advice from compensation consultants, outside legal counsel and other advisors (other than the Company's in-house legal counsel), the Compensation Committee must take into consideration the independence factors set forth in the applicable rules of the SEC and the listing standards of the securities exchange on which the Company's securities are listed, as in effect from time to time, including the following:

- the provision of other services to the Company by the person or entity that employs the advisor (such person or entity, the “Advisor Firm”);
